LECTURE.

By request, Thomas A. Garey Dist. Deputy of the order of Patrons of Husbandry, gave a lecture at the Court House on Wednesday evening last, to a large and attentive audience. Space will not permit us giving more than a brief synopsis of his address.

The lecturer said that the order was spoken of first during the presidency of Johnson, the National grange being organized on the 4th day of December 1867. Its objects were to stop encroachments of monopolies, and to establish facilities in trade that would tend to bring the producer and consumer together in business transactions, and to avoid the necessity of middlemen. The order in its incipiency received cold encouragement, if any at all, there being but two granges organized during 1868. It was not long after, when the order began springing in several of the States, and was now like a tidal wave sweeping over the entire land; that within the last six months no less than 6,000 granges have been organized. The order was planted in California on the 15th of July, and, already, within the short period of four months there were 104 granges in working order. The movement is not confined to this country alone, but was spreading in Great Britain and Germany. The speaker then gave some wholesome remarks upon the cost of sewing machines, reapers, etc., the price paid for them, and pointed out a way in which everything could be obtained at nearly first cost. The Southern Dist. Agricultural Fair was passed upon in a very pleasing manner, and in unqualified terms, the speaker said that it was no representation of onr agricultural resources. The lecture throughout was interesting, and highly appreciated.—[Guardian, Nov. 20.

The progress medals are given to exhibitors who have furnished evidence of considerable progress over similar products shown at former Universal Exhibitions, by new inventions, or who, by the introduction of new materials and contrivances, etc., or by their efforts, have otherwise essentially contributed to the progress of industry or the improvement of society.

The medals for merit were awarded to exhibitors in consideration of the excellence of the exhibits, the extent of their operations and the superiority of means and forces employed.

The United States secured four hundred and twenty-four prizes, including eight diplomas of honor, sixty-nine medals for progress, one hundred and seventy-seven medals for merit, two medals for fine arts, five medals for good taste and twenty-three medals for co-operators, the rank of the different prizes being in the order as here given.

The medals of all classes are of bronze, and all of the same size, differing only in the design to suit the corresponding classes.

NO FIGHTING EDITOR REQUIRED.

A Western editor has put in practice a plan which will enable all papers to dispense with the usual fighting membe of the staff. One morning he was waited on by the biggest kind of a fellow, armed with a terrific cudgel, with several and sundry protuberances sticking out all around, marvelously resembling Colts, Deringers and Bowies, who saluted him with, "Where's that scoundrel, the editor?" Our friend said, "He is not about; but please take a seat and amuse yourself with a paper; he will be in a few minutes," and hurried down stairs, at the foot of which he met another man still more profane and fierce, who asked the same question in the same language. "Oh," said the retreating editor, "go up stairs; you will find him reading the paper." Accordingly up he went, like a high-pressure steam engine, letting off steam at every step. Our friend waited a minute, and such a crash—slam, bang, oath, curse, objurgation—as if all Pandemonium was let loose. What the result was was never known, as our friend didn't wait.

A beautiful and wealthy anonyma of Kensington, England, has made a sensation by marrying a youthful lover of the first circles, paying £6,000 to make good his bank defalcation, giving her whole fortune, and finally committing suicide because he deserted her. She protested that she married to secure his reformation and her own. Poor Magdalen.

Charles R. Peters advertises in Saturday's Post to the extent of six colums. He is proposing to build an immense market. The rest of his propositions about drinking fountains, Lick statute, and a $50,000 race, are probably chaff to catch the unwary.

DIFFICULTIES OF A STOKER'S WIFE.

A writer in Good Words tells the following story of the difficulty some people meet with endeavoring to lead a "religious life." A lady had gone to visit a young couple of the better class of the poor. They had no children, and the husband being a stoker on a railway, they were above the reach of want. Under these circumstances it seemed to the visitor that they might have attended to their religious duties at least to the extent of going to church on Sundays, and she ventured to intimate as much to the young woman, who was standing rather idly at the door. "Will you please walk in till I show you something?" was the woman's answer; and she conducted her visitor to the little kitchen, where her husband sat by the fire. He had just come home for half an hour to have his tea, and was watching the kettle with the most absorbing interest. He was of course in his working clothes, and his face and hands were of a deep oily black, after the manner of stokers.

"Now, ma'am," said the woman, pointing to him, "you see that there man; that's my husband, and I'm bound to do a part by him, ain't I?" "Surely," said the visitor, anxious to uphold the duties of matrimony. "Very well then; would you like to know how I pass my Sundays? A washing of he! Never a blessed moment has he to wash himself through the week, out early and late, and half the night, too, and blacker nor any crow all the while. Well, on Sunday's it is fitting and proper that he should try to look like a Christian if he can, so he sets me to it after we eats our breakfast, with a bucketful of soapsuds and a scrubbing brush, and I rubs at him off and on all day, till my arms ache, and he ain't much better than he wor: and then after we have our tea he says to me, 'Come, Sally, have another try, there's a brave wench,' and I goes at him again, and sluces him down till you'd think him a born nigger 'ud come out white; and, if you'd believe me, ma'am, when I polishes him off with a dry towel afore he goes to bed, he's only a light brown after all." What was to be said to such stubborn facts; especially when the good woman finished with the unanswerable argument, "So you see, ma'am, them as wants to live religious has best not marry a stoker."

Eastern Feeling about Cuba.

In a very warlike editorial, the N. Y. Herald thus states the demand of the President in the Virginius case:

The President demands the formal delivery of the Virginius to officers of our government in a port of the United States; the release and restoration to our protection of the surviving captives; a money indemnity to the heirs of all taken from on board the Virginius and put to death; the trial and punishment of General Burriel and all other responsible officers; the immediate and unconditional abolition of slavery in Cuba as the source of all pending difficulties and complaints.

We will welcome war as the solution of a difficulty that has troubled our statesmen for generations, and as the legitimate means of inflicting a righteous and merited punishment upon a barbarous foe; and as plucky old England goes all the way to Ashantee to punish the murder of people entitled to her protection, it will go hard if we cannot inflict a similar punishment in our own waters, and in the very sight and hearing of our people.

A Curious Animal.

Coleman, of Boise City, has caught an animal of which the wise heads of Idaho seem to know but little. It weighs about twenty-five pounds, is about fifteen inches high and eighteen long, has a short stub-tail one or two inches long; thinish long hair from the top of its head back to his rump of a dark brown color, something like a brown bear; face smooth and pleasant, with full round eyes resembling a dog. Its fore legs and feet resemble a dog; a little speck of white in the forehead and under the neck, and between the toe nails of each foot; its rump has short gray hair; takes considerable pains to sit on its rump, with his hind legs evenly fixed between the fore feet. It is very docile, can make sort of a growl, not a bark. The animal was caught a year ago, sixty miles below Boise City, about three miles from Snake river.

A correspondent of the HERALD gives us some valuable information about timber. He says: "Among the trees, we note many tropical palms and northern pines in singular contiguity, ash, oak, elm, chestnuts, bread-fruit and Australian gums, Tahiti, Hawaiian, Mandarin, Cuban, Floridian and Mexican oranges, and many varieties of apples, pears, plums, peaches, lemons and limes; among the shrubbery, guavas, bananas, plantains, alligator pears and persimmons; whilst as for flowers, from every land and clime, from the magnolia to the violets and forget-me-nots, in boundless variety and profusion; their mere catalogue would fill our columns to overflowing, and call into requisition botanical researches for which we have an abundance of inclination, but for which the limited time at our command is entirely inadequate.

The building of the Opera House in San Francisco, on Misson street near Third is well under way, the first story and iron front being already erected. The work is to be pushed forward rapidly, in order to have the roof perfected before the rainy season sets in. In this theatre building, it is esmated that a greater length of time will be taken up in fitting and finishing the interior of the walls and roofs; and consequently the first performance is not expected to take place before the 22d of Febuary next. Much of the interior work is now being done under the supervision of an experienced stage carpenter in a shop near the new theatre building.

THE N. Y. Herald is going after Nast in a very nast-y way. It publishes letters from pretended sympathises with Nast, enclosing him a chew of tobacco, a check for five cents, some turtle soup remnants, and a brass medal.

John Swett, Deputy Superintendent of Schools in San Francisco, will be elected Principal of the Denman Grammar School.

TESTIMONIALS:
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, DEPARTMENT OF LANGUAGES. OAKLAND, July 11, 1872.
Herewith I certify that Miss Josephine Lindley has been a student in my department of the University for five consecutive terms, viz: from September, 1870, to April 3d, 1872. During this time she studied the French, the Spanish and the German languages, obtaining always the highest marks for proficiency and attendance, her average credit mark for five terms being 97 per cent.
On entering the University, Miss Lindley possessed already such knowledge of the French and Spanish idioms as to be able to speak them with ease, fluency, correctness, and a pure pronunciation.
She may now be considered thoroughly familiar with the theory and philosophy, as well as with the application of these two tongues; and she may safely be recommended as a candidate of great promise, for teaching the French and Spanish languages.

The Napa Gang Plow.

TO THE FARMERS OF LOS Angeles County: We call your attention to the new IMPROVED GANG PLOW, patented by D. A. Manuel, of Napa, and adopted by the Granges of this State. The points of superiority are: Lightness of draft, it being a centre draft; a castor wheel in the rear, which makes it turn in a space sufficient to accommodate its length; it has a falling pole and can, by sliding, be adjusted to the driver's weight, and removes all pressure from the horses' necks. We only ask farmers to call and examine for themselves.

SATURDAY.....DEC. 6, 1873

THE increase in the public debt for the month of November, according to the statement made public, amounts to the startling sum of $9,528,575. The estimated deficiency for the remaining three-fourths of the present fiscal year is $13,520,000, and the expenditures of the year ending June 30th, 1875 will exceed the estimated revenue, $13,601,000. A little over a year ago we were asked by the administration press to believe that such a state of affairs could only be the result of the election of Greeley. Will some one good in figures explain how it comes that Grant's re-election didn't save us all this trouble?

THERE are old fogies in this city, who having waded through the mud for twenty five years, can see no sense in "wasting several thousand dollars in building side-walks and crossings." If they were to listen for a short time to the anathemas of our eastern visitors, they might come to the conclusion that a little money invested in such improvements, is not wasted. It is disgraceful that a city of twelve thousand inhabitants, should not have a crossing on her public streets.

THE Cincinnati Commercial is an able, independent paper, and strikes hard when in earnest. One of its late utterances is expressed tersely, but might have been couched in more elegant language. It says "all the Roman-nosed scoundrels and canal suckers and gobblers of public funds throughout the country should pay partieular attention to the progress of Boss Tweed to the penitentiary. It is a matter that intesests them personally."

A Washington Territory paper strkes a note of the times in this fashion: "Farmers selling their wheat for forty cents a bushel and county officers paid at the rate of $3,000 a year. Our legislative Solons should have a vote of thanks."

THERE is an immediate prospect of a rise in wool. In Boston and all parts of the east, the market is firmer, and more active. This with the rain will be good news to our farmers and grazers.

THE State Senate has settled down to business in earnest; and the Assembly is preparing for work. Irwin has been elected President of the Senate, and Shackleford, of Tulare Secretary.

NOTICE has been given in the United States Senate of the introduction of a bill to repeal so much of the Postal Act as prohibits free postage to weekly newspapers.

A dispatch from Washington says that Professor Langton (colored), has superceded Howard, as President of the Howard University.

Arizona Mining Items.

The latest news from Mineral Park is that a large body of very rich silver ore--black sulphurets--had been struck in the Keystone mine, and that water had increased to such an extent as to interfere with the working of the mine; consequently, the company have sent to San Francisco to procure hoisting machinery.

At the Sheriff's sale of mining ground in Pine Grove and Bradshaw districts, last Saturday, Levi Bashford bought feet in the extension of the War Eagle, and David Grubb purchased feet in the California.

At Kelly & Stephens' store in Prescott, a large piece of silver ore is on exhibition which came from the La Plata lode, four or five miles south of town.

The arrastra of Elliott Bros., in Prescott, worked by steam, was started last Monday on Goodwin ore. W. C. Collier is attending to the amalgamation of the ore, which yields about $400 in silver per ton. The arrastra operation is an experiment to ascertain the proper method of treating the ore.

Fred Henry, one of the owners in the Rainbow lode, was in town a few days since and reported progress in his neighborhood. The arrastras on Kirkland Creek are working successfully. Parties working on the Vesuvius and other lodes in the vicinity continue to get out good ore.

We call the attention of our outside readers to the description of Cedar Valley district, written to the San Diego World, and published on our first page. The district is 150 miles west from Prescott, is, and has been for years, entirely free from hostile Indians, and offers many inducements to mining men for investment.

Considerable excitement has been raised at Camp McDowell and Phœnix by the return of a prospecting party with rich specimens of gold, silver and copper ores, from a new district. Some of the ore is visibly rich in free gold. The party will return immediately to work on their claims.—[Arizona Miner.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The following correspondence explains itself:

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1st, 1873.

Hon. Y. Sepulveda, Vice President of the Los Angeles Library Association, &c.: Sir—In reply to yours of November 25th, requesting me to deliver a lecture for the benefit of the "Los Angeles Association," I have to say that I am not only willing, but anxious to do all in my power to promote so laudable an object. I shall therefore be at the service of the Association at any time after two weeks from the date hereof.

As regards the subject of my discourse I have thought that a sketch of California life in the year 1849, and the years immediately following, might interest a Los Angeles audience.

You may therefore tender my acceptance to the Board of Trustees and at the same time announce as the subject of the proposed lecture "The men of 1849, what they did and suffered." I remain your friend and obedient servant,

J. R. McCONNELL.

SAN FRANCISCO CORRESPONDENCE.

[Special Correspondence to the Herald.]

SAN FRANCISCO, DEC 2d, 1873.

Another week has rolled round, and I again start on a yarn for the especial benefit of the readers of the Los Angeles HERALD. Politics are all the rage just now, but Politics are something that I do not profess to know much about. However, I can give you two or three items that will doubtless prove of interest. The great absorbing topic is the resignation of "Our Eugene," known to the world as Senator Casserly; this step of the pet of the Democracy has taken the people somewhat by surprise. There are very few bold enough to state that they thoroughly understand the reason for this resignation. One will tell you that his health has suffered so much of late by his close attention to his senatorial duties that the doctors advised his immediate resignation. Another will say that his private duties required his immediate presence; therefore his public duties must of necessity be dropped. The ill-natured have also their reasons, the chief of which is that he is afraid to meet the charges preferred against him by the Democratic County Committee; wishing rather to cry out, "Don't shoot; I'll come down," than answer to the serious accusations recently brought up. Be all these taken for as much as they are worth; certain it is that his resignation has fallen like a bombshell upon his admirers. His successor for the short term remaining to him, has not yet been decided upon. Ex-Governor Haight has been very favorably spoken of, but he has positively declined the honor. Who the happy man will be, Quien sabe.

December First.

Yesterday was the great day on which the newly elected city and county officials took formal possession; and great has been the change in the majority of the officers; not as regards the chiefs, but as regards the subordinates. The new mayor Otis is well known, and is not altogether an unbred man. There is little fear in the community at large touching his course; he is for the people, first, last, and all the time. Great things are expected from the new Sheriff, McKibben. I can only hope he will not disappoint the expectants; he has always been looked upon as a safe man in commercial circles; so was his predecessor, "honest Jack Adams," as he was called, when running for office. But who will call him honest Jack now, after the record he leaves behind him. The only other serious change is the Chief of Police—Pat Crowley retires into the realms of private life, and if his successor, Cockerill, proves to be half as good a man, he will be good indeed, and the citizens will not growl.

Fire Department.

It is not that I love Scannell less, but San Francisco more—Shakespeare slightly altered. I do not know how the Fire Department in Los Angeles is managed, but I do hope, for the safety of the property of your citizens, it is not run on political principles. Unfortunately for the Frisco people, we have one Chief amongst us too many; one a Republican, the other a Democrat; both are good men, and both have many admirers. Our Fire Department is bossed by five Fire Commissioners, when the balance of power is Republican. Whitney is Chief, and the Whitney boys have positions given them in the Department. When the balance of power is Democratic, Scannell is Chief, and the Scannellites obtain the positions. Miserable to relate, what with resignations, etc., among the heads of the concern, the balance of power has been wobbling very much of late. First we had one Chief, then we had another. Balance has wobbled again, and we are to have Scannell as Chief now, vice Whitney and all the subordinates will be changed. This system is simply disgusting, and which is the better man, I will not pretend to say; but these continual alterations tend to disgust the public, dishearten the men, and place the fire protecting power of the city at a great disadvantage. At the Bancroft fire the other night, the way in which Whitney subdued the flames, was the theme of admiration of all who saw it. He has by sheer hard work brought his boys almost to the acme of perfection; and it does seem a great mistake to displace him now, purely for political motives, disorganize the whole, and give us the benefit of new men, many unfit for their positions; such positions only obtained because of the balance of power in the Board, and not from any merit on their part.

Sacramento.

The new Senate and Assembly mustered in full force yesterday. All was square, and above Board in the former, but in the latter, sharp practice marked its opening, and the house was adjourned in the face of a storm of "noes." This sharp work appears to have provoked much feeling, the why and wherefore has yet to be told. The meagre reports only state the actual facts, but I suppose the absence of two or three members, whose votes were urgently needed, was the cause of this action on the part of the minority. But enough of politics, let me launch out on social matters. First and foremost, I must touch on the old, old story of

Ship-board Horrors.

Captain Clarke, Mates Harris and Maloney have at last received sentence, the black sheep as usual come off best. Those who are behind the scenes do not hesitate in saying that Maloney the second mate was the worst of the whole mob, and he gets off with a few weeks imprisonment in the county jail, whilst the captain, (whose only fault apparently was remaining too much in his cabin, therefore neglecting his crew,) his punishment is several months hard labor and a very heavy fine. He is now a ruined man, and those who have been the instigators in this shameful persecution, can lay that flattering unction to their souls. The first mate persisted in stating that he never struck but one blow on board the ship, be this as it may, he has gone to the State prison, and will hereafter be branded as a felon. Every ship that arrives now has some case or another of cruelty on board. The "shyster" lawyers will not fail to keep the matter agitated, so long as it will prove a nest egg to them. The papers however will have something else to fill up with in the shape of legislative news, ergo we may expect that this description of excitement will die out.

The Weather.

The rain has come upon us, and none too soon, overcoats, umbrellas, and thick boots are all the go now-a-days. The weather wise tell us that we are still some inch and a half behind a corresponding date last year, but we live in hopes of seeing the streets a sea of mud and slush, and of hearing our friends greet us with "Glorious weather this, what splendid rain for the country." Seriously however, we are all glad to see the rain for the country's good, but I should like to poll the residents of San Francisco, and if possible find out how many honestly enjoy the rainy weather, and would not rather see the sky serene and blue overhead, than lowering as it is now.

Thanksgiving Day.

Our day of thanksgiving has past and gone, what an awful number of turkeys must have been consumed, and what fine turkeys they must have been! I have not met with a solitary individual who would confess to anything but that he sat down to the finest turkey he had ever seen in his life. Stay, I do know of one man who resides across the bay at Oakland, a man married, settled, done for, and the father of a family of growing boys; in a moment of weakness he had promised his better half that she should be the possessor of a new kitchen range, a patent one. The range was purchased fitted up, tried by the seller and pronounced to be perfect in every respect. this happened on the day prior to Thanksgiving. Early on the Thursday morn, the domestic rose, and proceeded to light the fire in the new range, but "divil" a bit would it draw, do all she could, no fire could she make, nothing but smoke, and such smoke, it would not go up the chimney, but persisted in first invading the kitchen, next the sitting rooms, finally the bed rooms, disturbing the father of the family, the mother of the family and all the growing boys above alluded to. All tried a hand at the patent range, but all failed, no breakfast could be obtained, much less a Thanksgiving dinner, and these miserable individuals were compelled to scatter themselves around, some to their sympathizing neighbors, others to the abominations known as restaurants. Drop a tear to their sufferings, for this is an "over true tale."

Amusements.

The past week we have not had any amusements, we have only had attempts thereat, and only shameful attempts after all. On Monday and Tuesday we were favored with a dish of slang at the "California" written by Mestayer the villain of the Stock company connected with the theatre. On Wednesday the old story of a new face desiring to make her debut was enacted, result as usual. Remainder of the week "Lancashire Lass" and such like trash. Opera House devoted to miserable performances of "Barbe Bleue, only approaching success towards the end of the week, owing to insufficiency of rehearsal. "Burnt Corks," tolerably good, but performance only took owing to the Ella Mesners part of the programme which amazingly pleases the rising population. We want John McCullough back badly enough; we are all glad to hear of his succession his starring tour, but we "canna" do without him.

Yours as of yore, GOLDEN GATE.

Letter From Wilmington.

WILMINGTON, Dec. 3, 1873.

EDITOR HERALD:—Some of the people of Wilmington are much interested, just now, in planting shade trees, with a view to improving the value of their grounds, and the appearance of the town. They are resolved to remove the reproach cast upon the town that the soil is worthless, and unfit for cultivation, and that no homes can be made there in which people of taste would be willing to reside. The experiments already made prove the contrary to be true, that no soil is more productive, and no locality in the country better adapted to the growth of shade and fruit trees, grain and vegetables. The orange trees growing in Gen. Banning's yard produce as fine flavored oranges as any growing in Los Angeles. Grape and lemons, figs and other fruits yield as well, and are as fine flavored as similar fruits in other localities. Nor is the climate of Wilmington inferior to that of any other point on the Pacific coast, not excepting San Diego and Santa Barbara. The summers are cooler, and the winters less frosty than in Los Angeles. The oldest residents of the town are amazed that strangers, or any one else should imagine that Wilmington is undesirable as a place of residence. A mile below the town there is a beautiful pebbly sea beach, extending for miles to the east, along which carriages may be driven, and where visitors may enjoy the luxury of a sea bath, or the sport of fishing, or of shooting, duck, geese or snipe. In two or three years more, the groves of trees that are to be planted will change the whole appearance of the town. The kinds that have been selected, and that are most valued for ornament and utility, are the Australian gum, and the pepper, as these thrive well without irrigation after they have taken firm root. Gen. Banning and Hon. B. D. Wilson are preparing to plant many thousands in their extensive and beautiful grounds, having made large purchases of these and other trees. Large quantities of seed of the gum tree have also been purchased and planted by Mr. Wilson, with a view of having young trees enough to supply all his neighbors gratuitously, on condition that they will plant them.

The true method of planting the seed of the gum tree, I will here describe for the benefit of others. Spade the ground deep, set up boards around the piece thus spaded; cover it three inches deep with rich sand, and lastly, cover the sand two inches deep with sawdust. Sow the seeds evenly over the sawdust, and pound the entire surface down gently with the back of a rake. Sprinkle the whole with water, keep it moist, and protect from frost. If planted in this way not a seed will fail to grow, if it has any vitality. C.

CITY AND SUBURBS.

Thomas Mott is a passenger on the Mohongo to-day.

The receipts of bullion still continue to be very large.

A message awaits Fernando Gallego at the telegraph office.

A brick crossing near the HERALD office is the first sign of reform.

The Mohongo passengers will leave the depot this morning at 10 A. M.

But one team had left up to yesterday afternoon with assorted goods for Independence.

Gov. Downey goes up this morning on the Mohongo to San Francisco, and probably to Sacramento.

Armstrong & Shaw were selling off their goods by auction last night. The store was full and business was brisk.

The rainfall up to noon yesterday for 24 hours past was 81-hundredths of an inch. Total for the season 4 inches 31-hundredths.

The rain storms yesterday were very severe, but in the afternoon they passed over leaving us to the enjoyment of bright sunny weather.

G. W. Morgan is receiving bids for the construction of the irrigating ditch and flume of the Santa Gertrudes Land Association. Work will be commenced immediately.

R. C. Reed, late of Chicago, opens on Monday a new manufactory of candy and confectionery. He is just from the east, where he has been connected with large first class establishments.

"Go away from home to hear the news." The San Jose Mercury says that "orange orchards in Los Angeles county are threatened with a destructive blight." That is the first we have heard of it.

The German Turnverein Society will give a dramatic performance and ball at their hall to-morrow evening. The entertainments given by this society are usually very enjoyable, and it is hoped that a full house will greet them on this occasion.

Six boys, from 10 to 15 years of age, whose names we suppress on account of their youth, were charged with stealing goods from A. C. Shaw & Co. to the amount of $16 70. They will appear before Justice Trafford to-morrow.

Mr. Fanning announces in our columns "that he has leased the old Los Angeles Hotel on First street, near the intersection of San Pedro." He has fitted up the house, elegantly refurnished it and has engaged a first class American cook. The table is excellent, the rooms good and every attention paid to boarders.

Insanity and Suicide.

There are as many degrees of insanity as there are varieties of suicides. There are moral, financial, political, and social qualities belonging as an innate right to every citizen, and any act calculated to weaken or destroy either of these qualities, may be termed suicidal.

The degree of insanity under which the individual is laboring may be determined by the act committed.

Those who are afflicted with the most desparate degree of insanity, which we will designate as the first degree, generally make an attempt upon their life. Those of the second degree are sure to destroy their moral life. And those of the third, their political life, and so on. If we are not mistaken, the present legislators, now in Sacramento, will furnish many examples of politicians suffering in the third degree of insanity.

It is a fact generally conceded that if Gov. Booth's election to the U. S. Senate was placed before the people of California, he would receive two-thirds of the votes of the people with these facts before them. Those legislators who suffer themselves to be led off, or in any way barter their votes against him, will as certainly end their political career in California as they now breathe. A DEMOCRAT.

Aleck Stephens----A Bill to regulate Railroads in Califor..ia---A bill to expedite the survey of private land claims---A bill to sell grazing land---An irrigation bill---A mineral land bill---The Contract and Finance Company to be investigated.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.

Alexander H. Stephens, Representative from Georgia, was received by the President in one of the reception rooms on the main floor of the White House, to-day, Stephens being too feeble to ascend the stairway.

In the House, Mr. Kendall introduced a bill to regulate and make uniform the charges on railroads in relation to California.

Houghton will renew his efforts in favor of a bill to expedite the survey of private land claims; also a bill to sell grazing lands to pre-emptors in single section tracts; also for some irrigation system to prevent monpolies.

Page proposes to urge a bill for the establishment of some government price per acre for both agricultural and mineral lands, in order to avoid unnecessary contests as to the mineral or non-mineral character of lands.

Luttrell announces his intention to urge a thorough investigation of the Contract and Finance Company matter; also a bill to admit grain bag materials duty free; also an appropriation for the removal of obstructions to navigation in the Sacramento river.

The Senate has elected its standing committees.

The nomination of Williams for Chief Justice has referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The State Department has received no advices relative to the situation in Havana.

The London Times publishes the official list of the British subjects taken prisoners on the Virginius, and afterwards executed at Santiago de Cuba. The Times, in commenting on the act, says the British government while demanding the surrender of the survivors, must carefully avoid committing itself to the position that the seizure was illegal.

The Department of State has no information to communicate concerning the arrangement for the surrender of the Virginius and her surviving passengers and crew to the United States naval forces. Nothing was received up to a late hour this evening to cause the impression that any part of the protocol will not be carried into effect.

The statement is unreservedly made that the Spanish officials are acting in good faith.

Captain-General Jovellar, Being Ordered to Deliver up the Virginius, Resigns.....Spain Acting in Good Faith...The London "Times," on the Virginius Capture.

HAVANA, Dec. 4.

Captain-General Jovellar telegraphed to the Madrid government to-night to the following effect: "The Madrid government peremptorily orders the Captain-General to deliver up the Virginius." General Jovellar respectfully resigns his position, and demands that another person be sent to take his place who can carry out the orders of the government. Considering the excited state of public opinion and the impossibility of overcoming the existing difficulties, General Jovellar submits that his manifesto was prepared, asking for delay, during which an opportunity might be given for reflection, and time gained to allay the fiery, patriotic spirit of the great national party in Cuba; the order from Madrid, immediately to be executed, deprives him of the new resource which he hoped to have for upholding the authority and interest of the country. In order that the Madrid government may comprehend the difficulties of the situation and do justice to the order and perseverance with which he began his labors, and which had already begun to produce fruit. The Captain-General describes the situation on the Island and declares that the impression produced by the news of the arrangement which had been made between Spain and the United States can be compared with that produced in Spain by the treaty at Bayonne, which led to the war of Independence against Napoleon. He begs to assure the government that the immediate execution of the order will cause a frightful commotion throughout the Island which would be sure to result in a catastrophe. The Spanish are unwilling to surrender the Virginius directly to the United States, but will surrender her to some neutral power.

The Description of an Eye-Witness.....Horrible Details.....Men Brutally Shot and Horribly Mutilated.....Out-Devilling the Devil!

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.

A New York special says the officers of the Morning Star, the vessel which arrived in New York yesterday morning from Santiago de Cuba, in which port she was lying when the Virginius was brought in, give graphic accounts of the massacre of the prisoners. Mr. Coffin, second mate of the Morning Star, witnessed the execution of the victims. The first lot, consisting of Captain Frey and 36 of his crew, were led out at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. They were ranged facing the wall, and at sufficient distance from it to give them room to fall forward. Captain Frey having asked for a glass of water, one was handed him by Charles Bell, steward of the Morning Star. Frey then walked from the end of the line to the center, and calmly awaited his fate. He was the only man that fell dead at the first volley, notwithstanding the fact that the firing party were only 10 feet distant. Then ensued a horrible scene. The Spanish butchers advanced to where the wounded men lay writhing and groaning in agony, and placing the muzzles of their guns in some instances to the mouths of their victims, pulled the triggers, shattering their heads into fragments. Other dying men grasped the weapons thrust at them, with despairing grip, and shot after shot was put into their bodies before death quieted them. All the bodies were tumbled into carts and taken at once to the cemetery.

Mr. Coffin says that this batch of victims, at least, seemed to have no notion of the fate that awaited them. They walked along quietly, singing, chatting, laughing and smoking, as if on a pleasure trip.

On the following morning twelve Cubans were led to the slaughter, and similar disgusting scenes were re-enacted. The moment the preliminary order was given, the twelve turned their heads as if in obedience to a preconcerted agreement, and throwing their hands aloft shouted, "Viva Cuba's Libertad." This finished the executions that day.

The British war vessel Niobe, and her commander Lorraine, left Jamaica in such haste that several of her crew who were ashore on leave were left behind. He hardly stopped to cast anchor at Santiago de Cuba, before he hastened ashore and protested against the killing of any more of the Virginius crew. General Burriel answered him saucily in a letter, saying that all the executions that had been ordered would be immediately proceeded with. Commander Lorraine instantly returned reply that in the absence of an American man-of-war he would protect not only the interest of his own country, but those of the United States, and that if Burriel harmed a hair of another prisoner, he would bombard the city. It was generally believed at Santiago de Cuba, that this action of the British Commander saved the lives of the rest of the Virginius crew. Commander Lorraine, afterwards obtained five copies of the process of the Court Martial, condemning them to death, two of which he intended to transmit to our government, and two others to his own. Varano Cespedas del Sol and Ryan were shot early in the morning. The latter showing extraordinary coolness and courage. He marched along as gaily as if going to his wedding. A priest advanced to his side when the place of slaughter was reached, and offered the religious services of his office, but Ryan waived him off. The officers of the Morning Star say it is not true that the inhabitants of Santiago de Cuba were wild with joy, but on the contrary, they were exceedingly silent, and made no demonstrations whatever.

THE MESSAGE ON THE VIRGINIUS.

The steamer Virginius was, on the 25th day of September, 1870, duly registered at the port of New York as a part of the commercial marine of the United States. On the 4th of October, 1870, having her certificate in the usual form, she sailed from the port of New York and has not since been within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States. On the 31st of October last, while sailing under the American flag on the high seas, she was forcibly seized by a Spanish gunboat, the Tornado, and was carried into the port of Santiago de Cuba, where many of her passengers and crew were inhumanly shot, and so, at least as related to those who were citizens of the United States, were without due process of law put to death. It is a well asserted principle, asserted by the United States from the beginning of our national independence, and recognized by Great Britain and other maritime Powers, and stated by the Senate in a resolution passed unanimously on the 16th of June, 1858, that American vessels on the high seas in time of peace, bearing the American flag, remain under the jurisdiction of the country to which they belong, and therefore any visitation, molestation or interference which such vessels, by force, on the part of a foreign Power, may sustain, is in derogation of the sovereignty of the United States. In accordance with this principle, the restoration of the Virginius, and the surrender of the survivors of her passengers and crew, and due reparation to the honor of the flag and the punishment of the authorities who had been guilty of the illegal act of violence, were demanded. The Spanish Government has recognized the justice of the demand, and has arranged for the immediate delivery of the vessel and for the surrender of the survivors of the passengers and crew, and for a salute to the flag, and for proceedings looking to the punishment of those who may be proved to have been guilty of illegal acts of violence toward citizens of the United States; and also towards indemnifying those who may be shown to be entitled to indemnity. A copy of the protocol of conference fletween the Secretary of State and the Spanish Minister, in which the terms of this arrangement was agreed to, will be transmitted herewith, together with the correspondence on this subject with the Legation of the United States in cipher and by cable, and which need the verification of the actual text of the correspondence. It has seemed to me to be due to the importance of the case not to submit the correspondence until the actual text can be received by mail. It is expected shortly, and will be submitted when received. In taking leave of this subject for the present, I wish to renew the expression of my conviction that the existence of African slavery in Cuba is a principal cause of the lamentable condition of the Island. I do not doubt that Congress shares with me the hope that it will soon be made to disappear, and that peace and prosperity may follow its abolition. The embargoing of American estates in Cuba; cruelty to American citizens who have been detected in no act of hostility to the Spanish Government; the murdering of prisoners taken without arms in their hands; and, finally, the capture upon the high seas of a vessel sailing under the United States flag, and having a United States registry, has culminated in an outburst of indignation that has seemed for a time to threaton war. Pending negotiations between the United States and the Government of Spain on the subject of this capture, I have authorized the Secretary of the Navy to put our navy upon a war footing to the extent at least of the entire annual appropriation of that branch of the service, trusting to Congress and the public opinion of the American people to justify my action.

Governor Booth's Message---J. C. Bonte Chaplain of the Senate.

Governor Booth's message was sent to the Senate this afternoon.

Nothing new in the Senatorial contest.

The Legislature yesterday, after much debate, elected Rev. Rev. J. C. Bonte, of Sacramento, Chaplain of the Senate.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

Governor Booth's message was presented to-day and is published. He refers briefly to the Modoc war, and pays a tribute to soldiers who fell in the lava beds; congratulates the people on their happy exemption from the financial panic, such as afflicted the people of the east. He says the finances of the State have been economically managed. He recommended State aid to private charities, and that deficiencies in the military fund be supplied by liberal appropriations. Recommends the repeal of the law for State land agency; thinks the words white and colored ought to be stricken out of the State school law, and equal school rights extended to all children. He recommends also an enlargement of the powers of the local authorities of San Francisco in order to rid the Legislature of the special legislation relative to affairs of that city. Says that our treaty with China ought to be readjusted so as to restrain further immigration from that country; also recommends legislation for the adjustment and uniformity of fares and of rights on railroads in the State; says the carrying of concealed weapons should be again prohibited by law; favors the system of compulsory education; says the Legislature should not adjourn without enacting that population shall be the basis of State representation, and calls special attention of the Legislature to the subject of irrigation. The Governor also favors legislation with a view to secure a minority representation in the Legislature.

PROTOCOL.

Protocol of conference held at the Department of State, at Washington, on the 28th of November, 1873, between Hamilton Fish, Secretary of State, and Rear-Admiral Don Jose Polo de Bernabe, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister of Spain: The undersigned, having met for the purpose of entering into a definite agreement respecting the case of the steamer Virginius, which, while under the flag of the United States, was, on the 31st of October last, captured on the high sea by the Spanish man-of-war Tornado, having reached the following conclusions: Spain on her part stapulates to restore forthwith the vessel referred to, and the survivors of her passengers and crew, and on the 25th day of December next to salute the flag of the United States. If, however, before that date, Spain should prove, to the satisfaction of the Government of the United States, that the Virginius was not entitled to carry the flag of the United States, and was carrying it at the time of her capture without right and improperly, the salute will be simultaneously dispensed with, as, in such case, not being a necessary requirement. But the United States will expect, in such case, a disclaimer of intent of indignity to its flag by the act which was committed. Further, if, on or before the 25th of December, 1873, it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the United States that the Virginius did not rightfully carry the American flag, and was not entitled to American papers, the United States will institute inquiry and adopt legal proceedings against any of the persons who may appear to have been guilty of illegalities in connection therewith. It being understood that Spain will proceed according to the second proposition made to General Sickles and communicated in his telegram to Admiral Polo on the 29th inst., to investigation the conduct of those authorities who have infringed Spanish laws and honorary obligations, and will arraign them before competent courts and inflict punishment on those who may have offended. All other reciprocal reclamations to be subject to considerations and arrangement between the two governmenis, and in case of no agreement, to be subject of arbitration, if the constitutional assent of the Senate of the United States be given thereto. It is further stipulated that the time, manner and place for the surrednder of the Virginius and the survivors of those who were on board of her at the time of her capture, and also the time, manner and place for the salute to the flag of the United States, if there should be occasion for such salute, shall be subject to agreement between the undersigned within the next two days.

Special Notices.

Having just returned with a very large stock of California and Eastern jewelry which we purchased from first hand—the manufacturers—we propose to sell at very low profits. We handle the best of everything in our line. We sell Vanderslice & Co's and Gorham & Co's solid silver ware, and Rogers & Bros'. silver plated ware, for whom we are authorized agents for Southern California and get our goods direct from them. The public should be sure to see that all silver ware is stamped Rogers & Bro., as there is a quantity of goods in the market bearing similar trade marks, using the name Rogers in various ways, and so appearing so nearly genuine that unless by paying particular attention they are liable to be deceived. There is no ware manufactured by Rogers & Bro. except that which bears their trade mark to the letter. But there are several companies manufacturing Rogers' ware, and by close inspection you will see that the trade mark reads differently, and is not made by Rogers & Bro., which is the acknowledged standard plate ware, and as we have handled the same for ten years we can recommend it. We are also sole agents for Black's Patent Interchangeable Spheroidal Pebble Spectacles, which are guaranteed to improve the eyesight and never injure, as they are all acromatic lenses. We thoroughly understand, practically and scientifically, fitting all eyes, no matter how difficult the case may be, as our stock comprises everything in the line. We are now introducing many new lines of Watches, which are of new designs of Key and Pendant Winders, with some of our own improvements. We have the materials made especially for us, and send import them direct and put them up in the most approved plan, having increased our facilities more than ever. We also keep a very fine stock of American and Swiss Watches. We always have in stock Chronographs, Fly-Backs, Split and Quarter-Second Watches, of the best makers.

We have an unequalled stock of the very finest jewelry, which we buy for cash direct from the manufacturers east. Also, the most extensive variety of Clocks, consisting of American, German, Swiss and French manufacture, and a nice line of German Cuckoo Clocks. We have a fine stock of Diamonds and other precious stones; in fact we have a complete stock in our line of business—we would say the largest in Southern California, were it not so common for every one to say theirs is the largest stock. You can easily see by taking a look. Call on us, and if you don't see what you want, ask for it. As our store is small, we keep a fine lot of goods in the safe, which we will show with pleasure. We make a specialty of Repairing of every kind, for which we are prepared in every emergency, and guarantee satisfaction. We do all kinds of Engraving on Silver Ware, Jewelry, Coffin Plates, etc., in a neat and workmanlike manner. All goods sold sold by us are engraved free of charge. Come early and secure your Holiday Presents, and have them engraved, as they are going off rapidly.

We wish to tender our sincere thanks to the public of Los Angeles and Southern California for the flattering success which we have met, far beyond our most sanguine expectations; and we hope by energetic enterprise, a thorough knowledge of and close attention to our business—with a sufficient capital ready to increase as the demands may require—to merit, not only the present patronage, but a large increase in the future.

Respectfully,
E. E. FISHER & CO.

The Cuyas House.

The California oysters kept in the elegant establishment of Mr. Cuyas, near the Pico House, have special qualities, owing to the system followed by the above named gentleman in fattening and preserving them as fresh as when taken out of the sea. Lovers of oysters can see for themselves and be convinced. Chocolate, coffee, tea and other refreshments, all first-class, are also served there. There can be found for sale Sherry Wine, Muscatel, imported from Spain, by Mr. Cuyas, and best brands of Havana Cigars. He also keeps a good stock of perfumery, toys and candies of all kinds. nov2-2w

Of Special Interest to Farmers.

At the Esperanza Store, No. 108 Main street, will be found the largest and choicest stock of Merchandise, Groceries, Liquors, Cigars, etc., in Southern California. It is well known that at this store you can buy all goods in their line at from five to ten per cent. cheaper than at any other store in Los Angeles; also that the highest price is paid for all kinds of country produce. All goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.

Wonderful. Isn't It?

The amount of goods one can get for $1 00 at the Dollar Store is really astonishing; and Dunsmoor Brothers deem it a pleasure to show their beautiful stock of Holiday Goods to all who may choose to call. Parties buying presents for Sabbath Schools or Christmas trees will find it to their advantage to call on Dunsmoor Bros. before making a selection.

Look at This!

The only place in the city to get choice Engravings, Claromos, Oil Paintings, etc., is at M. V. Ponet's, 63 Main street, where you can buy them cheap for cash, or pay in weekly installments of from 25 cents to $1, according to the amount purchased.

The Santa Barbara Press

An Independent Newspaper,

Devoted to the Interests of Southern California.

J. A. JOHNSON, Editor and Proprietor.

AS THE CHARMING CHARACter of Southern California, and more especially that most favored section called Santa Barbara, becomes known to the world, it is not surprising that a widespread and growing interest in this region should be awakened. It is the constant aim of the Press to furnish perfectly reliable information on al points of interest to tourists, invalids and home-seekers, which we are now able to do with greatly increased facilities.

While the PRESS seeks to promote the prosperity of all Southern California by all legitimate and honorable methods, it is more directly interested in the growth and coming greatness of Santa Barbara. The unequaled loveliness of the climate, its almost incredible healthfulness, the beauty of the scenery, the wondrous variety and fertility of the soil, the almost unlimited range of products which flourish there without irrigation, will be known from time to time by facts which cannot be controverted, in the columns of the PRESS. Any intelligent person can become familiar with this part of the State by reading the PRESS for a year.

Terms of the Daily, per annum.....$7 00

Terms of the Weekly, per annum..... 5 00

Currency and Postoffice Money Orders taken at par.

SPECIAL INDUCEMENT.

All yearly subscribers to the WEEKLY PRESS will obtain, FREE, an Illustrated Number, and a copy of WOOD'S GUIDE to Santa Barbara, Town and County.

A WORD TO ADVERTISERS.

It is an admitted fact that the SANTA BARBARA PRESS is the leading journal of Southern California, and has a much larger circulation than any other newspaper in that section, being more chiefly read by the more thrifty families, and hence its advantages to advertisers are obvious. nov20tf

THE HOWE MACHINE CO'S SEWING MACHINES have become celebrated the world over. The work done on these machines is unsurpassed—sewing the thinnest material and the heaviest goods with equal facility, and requiring no extra adjusting for uneven thickness or passing over seams.

The Attachments for Hemming, Felling, Braiding, Cording, Quilting, Tucking, Binding and Gathering are of the latest improved pattesns, and are superior to those used on any other machine.

The HOWE MACHINES are the STRONGEST and SIMPLEST, and seldom or never give any trouble in operating. They are the oldest established in the world (Mr. Howe being the original inventor), and are in advance of all others in improvements and perfection of mechanism.
